

Let me introduce myself. My name is Dayna Davis - music extraordinaire. Well, maybe that is an overstatement, but truth is, I'm a very cool person ☺ I am an artist, musician, producer, songwriter, arranger, vocalist, indie label & publisher owner, all-around good person and awesome friend. It's quite challenging to talk about myself in a humble and cohesive manner, but here's my best go of it:

classic charm.

Basically, I'm an old soul in a youthful body with a fresh perspective on life. I tell it like it is, in a diplomatic fashion, all with a smile. I'm sweet, polite, and professional. I'm conservative and classy, but certainly not a bore. I'm fun, and probably funny, but no trouble-maker. I'm a lover; not a fighter. I've got the old-fashion tradition of the South; free spirit of the West; forward thinking of the East, and good ole' Midwest charm. I'm a unique blend of everything that everyone loves <3

A friend/fan of mine described me as leather and lace, and I think she nailed it! Leather is perceived as being daring, racy, bold, and sexy. And lace, traditionally speaking, is considered, dainty, cute, and sweet. If you put them together, you get this moderately spicy image that's wholesomely, intriguing ;-) diverse.

Here's the skinny: I'm a world traveler. I love culture. My audience consists of folks from the cradle to the grave. I enjoy oldies, doo wop, and Motown. I also enjoy classical and jazz. AND I enjoy pop, R&B, reggae, and country. I even enjoy Christian and gospel. I like it all! Each of those genres has influenced me in special ways. And in true DayRae fashion, I put together a cohesively, diverse show for all to enjoy ☺ biggie-smalls effect.

What's my story? I don't know, but we can chat over a cup of coffee and you'll figure it out! But, what I can say is my "stick" is that I'm this petite girl, with a big voice and personality that you probably wouldn't guess I had, based off of a first impression.

So...I said all that to say that, this is who I am as a person and as an artist. I will remain true to my moral standards. I won't try to fit in a box. And I plan to be a global artist. I strive to cross over in smooth jazz, r&b, pop, country, Disney and adult-contemporary lanes. I'm in search of a team who can help me accomplish this dream.
